

There is 1 solution for this exercise.
Please see your textbook for the exercise prompt.

harpermath

?

⌕ ⌕ ⌕ ⌕ ⌕

Solution

Assign each person a number and using a random number table or technology, choose half to be in one group and the other to be in the second group. When a person from the first group is called, use the first description. When a person in the second group is called, use the second description.

See explanation for result.

0

Comments

Have a comment? Type it here ...

Submit